Leading authorities on international has hold that an armistice, trace or anappension of hostilities should be definite and exact and not implied.

When an armistice is formully agreed to, the authorities hold that "during its pendency nother party may ensure in any military work, operation or movement, at least on the immediate theater of war."

Thus, however, is limited to the Theater of war," and it is added:

"Each party may, in its own juried defion, do with its armed forces whatever it could do in time of peace. For ifficultions can be built or put in order, weamly first out, troops raised and trained and warlike stores manufactured and collected. Troops can be moved about from one part of a country to another, with the exception of the actual area, of hostilities."

Pretty Girl, Waving Flag, Epitomizes El Paso's Feelings on Army Day; Cheering Is Started as the Cavalcade Moves From Mobilization Point.

BRIDE-TO-BE of a young army officer stood on the reviewing stand and waved a silk flag until her arm was sufferom writer's cramp. She waved by flag in the faces of the officers, the shade of the trees, their boots and the bandsmen and even at the little silk flag until her arm was suffering from writer's cramp. She waved the tiny flag in the faces of the officers, at the bandsmen and even at the army mules, shouting in happiness &

That girl in her blue poplin dress, flowered hat and wrist watch, epitomized El Paso's feelings Friday, as through the devalous streets, as a part of Army day celebration. Her enthusians was the feeling of the stoods which banked the streets and filled the plants and office buildings. She did not appreciate the soldiers any more than did the El Tassams who gave them a spontaneous reception of choors and waving flags from the time the parade moved down Montana street until it had pussed the reviewing stand and out to the park.

Country Lends Cheering

John Conners led the cheering from the city officials section of the reviewing stand. He cheered the infantity, cavairy, artiliery and the army mules impartially, siving a separate cheer for each regiment as it passed and waying his but at the officers in friendly greeting. The cheering was continuous on the reviewing stand and the occupants of the boxes chaped their hands until they were bruised before the parade ended.

On the city hall dome, overlooking the reviewing stand, there was a larged crowd, who joined in the cheering from the gland. One patriotic Mexicus-timerless insisted uses yelling 'Viva Los Estados Unidos' at frequent intervals as the parade passed.

Mexican Situation Assumes a More Threatening Aspect Upon Receipt of Long Dispatches From Veracruz; Peace Plans May Be Halted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—The Mexican situation assumed a more warlike aspect Activities in the war department, which began last night on the receipt of long confidential advices from Gen. Funston, were renewed through the morning and were brought to the attention of president Wilson and the abinet when the regular at it ociock.

While this activity disclosed that every preparation was being made for every possible eventuality, yet secretary of war Garrison just before leaving the cabinet meeting said. "No additional troop movements have been ordered."

Huerta Registers Complaint.

Hueria Registers Complaint.

In the midst of military preparations came definite word that the mediating envoys had received from Gen. Hueria and submitted to the United States government, complaint that new landing of American traops and war material at Veracruz amounted to a breaking up of the armienice which had been arranged by the South American diplomats after their good offices in the Nextson crisis had been accepted by Gen. Huerta and the Enited States. This also was one of the subjects before the cabinet.

Secretary Bypan stated early in the day that the mediators had not been reserved by him. It was authoritatively learned from a source close to the mediators that they are of the opinion they will be able to persuade Gen. Hinerta that the United States has not violated, in spirit at least, the armistice which had been agreed on. Otherwise a stumbling block would be placed in their way which might render virtually useless their further efforts of media-
